NEXT-GEN BREEDING FOR NEXT-GEN CONFIDENCE

WE'VE GOT BREEDING CONFIDENCE DOWN TO A SCIENCE

At Betaseed, we're using advances in science to optimize the potential of every seed you plant. Our state-of-the-art breeding and testing process takes up to ten years. It's the only way to ensure the hybrid your Betaseed rep recommends has the best traits to manage disease and drive yields on your farm.

BetaShield®

BetaShield®
COMPLETE

Our sugarbeet seeds are specially treated to give them an extra layer of protection from seedling pests and diseases. In addition, the right treatment provides a wider window of opportunity for pesticide applications. BetaSeed offers you unique levels of protection.

THE RIGHT TRAITS

BetaSeed hybrids containing the CR+® trait have delivered superior protection and performance. They also perform well in both the presence and absence of Cercospora pressure, which means no yield drag in non-disease conditions.
